Promoted To Lieut. Colonel In Vietnam

Mr. and Mrs. William W. White of Rt. 1, Salem, Wis., recently received word that their son, William W., was promoted to the rank of Lieutenant Colonel in the U. S. Army.

Lt. Col. White, now serving as an Army Intelligence officer on General Westmoreland's staff in Saigon, was scheduled to return home in July but has volunteered to spend an additional six months in Vietnam.

White was recalled as a Private First Class in September of 1950, and given a Field Commission of 2nd Lieutenant in Korea in May, 1951. He expects to retire from the Army in two and one-half years.

Lt. Col. White is a graduate of Antioch High School, Class of 1942.

ANTIOCH FIREMEN MEET
At Tuesday night's meeting of the Antioch Fire Dept., Dennis Volting was accepted as a member of the department.

The firemen heard a report on the dance Saturday night, and approved a vote of thanks to everyone who helped to make it a success.

RPC Forecast of Antioch Growth Close To Count

The Lake County Regional Planning Commission recently released a table showing how accurate its population forecast has been.

The table gives the population of several Lake County cities and villages in 1960, the RPC forecast of the 1965 population, and the count as shown in interim censuses.

Antioch had a population of 2,268 in 1960, the RPC forecast set the 1965 population at 2,800. An interim census taken in May of 1965 showed a count of 2,778.

Fox Lake, however, didn't fulfill the RPC forecast. The 1960 population was 3,700; forecast for '65, 4,450; actual count in a June, 1965 census was 3,886.

The RPC pointed out that in some cases annexations added to the population, confusing the figures.

The office of the Antioch News will be closed Monday, July 4, in observance of Independence Day. Deadline for advertising material will be Tuesday noon, as usual.

AFS Raising Needed Funds

The Antioch chapter of the American Field Service believes there really is a Santa Claus. T. E. Cardwell, manager of the Antioch Dairy Queen, has offered to donate Dairy Queen products for the A.F.S. to sell to raise the money necessary for securing a foreign exchange student for the coming school year.

The big project will begin with the American Legion Carnival which is being held July 5-10 in the village parking lot in Antioch. Mr. Cardwell will provide the supplies for the Dairy Queen sandwiches, dilly bars, and malts. These items will be made up by adults willing to donate their time and will be packaged and sold by A.F.S. students from A.C.H.S. The work will be done under the supervision of Mr. Cardwell prior to the carnival and also during the days of the carnival to keep up with the demand. Any interested adult or student who would like to help with the project should call Mrs. Robert Jensen, 477 First St., Antioch, (395-0539).

The motto of the Antioch chapter of A.F.S. is "A Step Toward Peace," and Mr. Cardwell has certainly helped the organization make a big step toward reaching its goal. All carnival goers in the Antioch area are urged to look for the Dairy Queen scooter and trailer which will be selling Dairy Queen products to raise money for the new foreign exchange student.

The organization still has a short time before sending the home application to the New York office. If any family in the Antioch Community High School District is interested in making a home for a foreign student, please contact Mrs. Leslie Sorensen, 272 Chestnut St., Antioch (395-4017), or Mrs. Harold Nelson, 1907 E. Burr Oak Lane, Lindenhurst (356-5682). Several applications have been received, and a few more would be most appreciated.

Milton Wins GOP Chairman Post

After being soundly defeated in the June 14 primary in his bid for the post of county treasurer, Robert Milton was elected Lake County Republican chairman by acclamation Monday night.

Milton was elected chairman at a meeting of the Lake County Republican Central Committee, the 231 Republican precinct committeemen elected in the June 14 primary. A total of 201 committeemen were present at the meeting.

Other officers elected with Milton were Hugh S. Robinson, Deerfield, secretary, and Raymond E. Lindroth, Libertyville, treasurer.

Firemen Donate Bonds To Pool

Fire Chief Charles Maplethorpe returns the Fire Department Pool Bond to Dr. Charles Solar.

The Antioch Fire Department has "donated back" the bonds they held on the Antioch Pool.

Charles Maplethorpe, Fire Chief, presented the bonds to Dr. Charles Solar, chairman of the pool committee, at Monday night's meeting of the Lions Club.

Bonds were sold to finance the construction of the pool ten years ago. Several civic organizations have returned the bonds to the Lions Club.

Maplethorpe said, "The boys voted to return the bonds at the last meeting. We couldn't see any sense in the Lions struggling to pay off these bonds to another civic organization. After all, we're working for the same thing—improvement of Antioch."

Members of the Lions club donate their time in maintaining the pool and equipment. Dr. Solar remarked that some of the picnic benches are deteriorating and anyone who wished to donate some benches to the grounds could be sure they would be welcome.

Winners of the Lions Bridge match were honored at Monday night's dinner meeting. Elmer Eberman, chairman of the Bridge tournament committee, presented first-place trophies to Miss Dorothy Olson and Mrs. Marge Beitzell. Second place trophies were presented to Dr. and Mrs. James Kopriva. A trophy went also to Mr. and Mrs. Dan Maras, winners of the consolation match.

About 150 cars went through the safety lane in Antioch last Saturday, bringing to 200 the number of cars receiving free safety checks in Antioch earlier at the High School.

Police Chief Jack Heick said about 90% of the cars passed the check. Lights were the most frequent reason for failing to pass—a burned out headlight or tail lights. Mufflers were the next most frequent offenders and worn tires were next.

The Antioch Rescue Squad and local garages cooperated with the police department in conducting the check. Chief Heick said he would particularly like to thank Mike Haley, Ernie Westlund and Bill Wilton of the Rescue Squad; the Lyons-Ryan Ford, Stringer Motors, John Tergel, AP's Cigo Serv., and Green's Standard Service for supplying men and equipment to help in the check.

Legion Carnival In Antioch Next Week

Summer days are carnival days, and the Antioch American Legion Post No. 748 is bringing a carnival to Antioch next week, July 5 to 10.

The Legion carnival is an annual event, their main fund-raising activity of the year. It will be held in the blacktopped parking lot on Broadway and Orchard. That means smooth walking and ease in pushing baby buggies and strollers.

As usual, the carnival will have several thrilling rides for the young people, plus a merry-go-round for the young set. All sorts of booths and sideshows, of course. Try your skill and win a stuffed animal for your girl friend (or your wife).

Everyone's hungry, of course, after an hour or two at the carnival. Refreshments are available, and the Legion Auxiliary will have a cake and coffee booth.

The carnival will open Tuesday night, July 5, and run through the following weekend, July 9 and 10. Don Gaston is chairman of the carnival committee. Committee members are John Horan, Jr., Floyd Horton, Bernie Stadick, Paul Chase and Dr. George Jensen. The John Hansen Co. is furnishing the carnival rides and booths.

Proceeds of the carnival help to finance the many worthwhile activities of the Legion, including aid to veterans and citizenship activities for young people.

Antioch News Starts 81st Year Today

This issue marks the 80th birthday of The Antioch News.

You'll notice we have a new volume No. on the masthead. Today's paper is Volume 81, No. 1.

"Through rain, snow, sleet, hail—". No, that's the post office slogan. The newspaper might say, "Through fire, births, deaths, and other calamities, a newspaper pursues its appointed rounds." Not an issue of the paper has been missed in those 80 years, though of course a good many calamities have befallen the plant and the family of the publisher.

The Antioch News survived a fire, and went to press on time. The death of the publisher, Homer Gaston, was also survived without missing an issue. Plus many other emergencies.

So starts a New Year. After 80 years of not missing an issue, you can be reasonably sure you'll find The Antioch News available every week through the coming year.

Abbot's Declares Quarterly Dividend

Antioch Firemen Win 2nd In Water Fights

The Antioch Firemen's Water Fighting team brought a 2nd place trophy home from Round Lake Sunday, June 26. The men on the team are aiming for a first-place trophy before the season ends.

Twelve teams were competing for top honors at Round Lake. In the first round, Antioch was pitted against Lake Zurich. Antioch eliminated the Lake Zurich team, then took on the Vernon team.

The Antioch-Vernon competition was a good match but Antioch won and went into the finals with Wauconda.

Wauconda was too much for Antioch and the men had to settle for second place.

The next water fights will be July 10 at the Country-side Fire Station near Mundelein. Then, on July 23 and 24, Fox Lake will host the teams at their annual Firemen's days.

Sometime in August, Antioch hopes to hold the fights here so all can come out and cheer the boys on.

Anyone desiring information about the water fights can call Bernie Gutowski at 395-0864.

Have A Happy Trip

What will the traffic toll be over the long 4th of July holiday? One thing you can be sure of, it'll be bigger than the toll for the same period in the war in Viet Nam.

Probably nothing we can say will reduce the size of the final figure. But if you sincerely don't want to become one of the dead and injured on this holiday weekend, there are a few precautions you can take.

If you're going on a trip, make sure your car is in good shape. If you know your tires are wearing thin, that your brakes aren't just right, get them fixed. If you know your car isn't fit for a long trip, and you can't afford to fix it, stay home, or find entertainment close to home.

If you decide to take a trip, get out a copy of Rules of the Road and refresh your memory on the traffic laws. We'll bet you'll be surprised at how many you'd forgotten.

Next, make up your mind to observe every traffic law and rule of safety. You'll probably be surprised at how many corners you've been cutting in your everyday driving. Watch the signs and obey them. Don't tailgate, don't drive too fast for conditions (even if you do like to display your undoubted skill as a driver). Don't pass on hills or curves. Remember, you're the smartest guy on the road, and the drivers around you are all reckless nincompoops. Don't get angry when they do stupid, reckless things. Feel sorry for them, and surrender the right-of-way to them. You may live to attend their funerals.

Happy Fourth of July. May you live to celebrate Labor Day.

Can We Wave the Flag Too Much?

by Sidney L. DeLove

Is it possible to wave the flag too much? Provided, of course, that you wave it with integrity? Is it possible to study Lincoln or Shakespeare too much? Is it possible to read the Bible too much? The great, the good, the true, are inexhaustible for inspiration, example and strength. I believe that we are not waving our flag enough, not nearly enough. It seems to me that we are developing a tendency to be timid or even apologetic about waving the stars and stripes. Walk up and down the streets on July 4th and count the flags. It is our nation's birthday, a sacred day in world history, the most important day of America. Why isn't the flag flying on every rooftop and from every home and building? This complacent attitude is strong evidence of cancerous patriotic decay. The flag is a symbol of our national unity. It is the spirit of our undying devotion to our country. It stands for the best that is in us... for loyalty, character, and faith in democracy. Isn't our flag a synonym of the United States of America? Does it not represent man's greatest, noblest, most sublime dream? Is it not the zenith of achievement, the goal to which generations have aspired? Ladies and gentlemen, I believe it is time for us... for the mad, rushing Twentieth Century American... to stop for a moment and think. Let us arrest our near reverential admiration of material success and return to the spiritual and ethical values. Let us imbue and rekindle in ourselves and our children the so-called old-fashioned way of patriotism, a burning devotion to the principles and ideals upon which our country was founded. Should not every home own and proudly display the colors on holidays and other such occasions? Isn't the flag Patrick Henry, Jefferson, Franklin, Washington, Nathan Hale, Gettysburg and Valley Forge, Paul Revere, Jackson and other great men and women who have given us our heritage. When you look at the flag can't you see the Alamo, Corrigedor, Pearl Harbor, The Monitor and The Merrimack? Lest we forget, isn't the flag Flanders Field, Bataan, Iwo Jima, Normandy, Babe Ruth and Davy Crockett? The great events of our past and present are wrapped up in our flag. It is a symbol of this blessed na-

Dear Sir:

Medicare officially begins July 1, and millions of elderly persons will be eligible for Social Security medical benefits. One aspect of Medicare, however, has not been fully realized by the public. As yet, little is commonly known of a section of the Medicare law, "Title 19," which creates a program of aid to those of all ages who are medically needy, and uses state-federal matching funds.

Nine states and Puerto Rico are ready to feed from the public trough. In New York, a family of four may have an income of $6,000 after taxes, savings to $3,000 and life insurance policies up to $4,000 and still be eligible to have its medical bills completely paid for. 44% of New York's population may be eligible thus, or about 8 million persons.

My friends, we have just been sold complete socialized medicine in the guise of a Social Security "fringe" benefit.

More is dying in Vietnam than our GI's. American spirit and honor is dying there, too. Why? Because we have signed too many conflicting agreements that have snarled our military in red-tape and strangled our will to win.

LBJ says we are fighting in Vietnam because of our SEATO treaty. Okay. So we fight...

But he do not fight to win. Why not? Because of another agreement made with the United Nations. The UN says that we should stand around and lose so many men that we finally decide to negotiate a settlement on Red terms. In short, the UN expects us to lose the war. No, that is not precisely what they say but that is exactly how the UN wants this mess to end.

Why doesn't the UN want tion, a giant in industry, education and commerce. Millions of fertile square miles, wheatlands, coal mines, steel plants. Our great republic, the chosen infant destined to be man's last remaining hope for suffering humanity, a shining beacon of light, noble and glorious, the haven for the oppressed and persecuted and truly God's gift to mankind. That is what the flag means to me. Can we wave it too much? I don't think so.

Reply of S. L. DeLove on the Know Your History Hour, December 30th, 1956, to a listener who wrote as follows: "Your programs are wonderful — but you are waving the flag too much."

The above is reprinted and narrated annually in hundreds of national magazines, newspapers and radio stations, and is a part of the Congressional Record.

Courthouse Notebook

BY LOU DURKIN

Friends and supporters of Antioch's W. J. Murphy, top vote getter among Republican candidates for State Representative in the 31st District, are convinced the veteran political leader is going back to Springfield stronger than ever next January.

House Majority Leader during his last session in the legislature, Murphy is being hoisted for Speaker of the House if the Republicans gain control of the chamber as they are expected to do. This would be a real Hollywood finish for a political interlude which started in 1963 with Murphy's surprise elevation to Majority Leader followed a few days later by appointment as Chairman of the powerful Illinois Budget Commission.

Murphy's days of glory were short-lived, however, and during the primary campaign of 1964 State Treasurer William Scott and Cook County Richard Ogilvie included the Lake County representative among a group of GOP legislators they insisted must be eliminated for the "good of the party."

The "purge" program was a key part of Scott's in and out in again bid for the gubernatorial nomination and when he lost to Charles Percy, Scott made the purge of the legislators a condition of his support of the party's candidate.

Now Murphy is set to return to Springfield and ironically his chance for becoming Speaker of the House will depend in large measure on how well Percy does in the U. S. Senate race.

If Percy runs a strong race against the veteran Paul H. Douglas he could generate enough interest to insure Republican control of the House thus giving Murphy a shot at the top spot.

Scott might find it extremely uncomfortable with the "undesirable" Murphy in the top spot in the Illinois General Assembly's House of Representatives.

It's a little surprising that Percy hasn't exerted some effort to bring about a more peaceful atmosphere among Lake County Republicans because he is going to need a massive turnout of Lake County GOP votes if he hopes to unseat the veteran Douglas.

The former industrialist hurt himself badly in Lake County through his association with the purge and the us to win? Because too many UN nations and officials like how things have gone since 1945. For some reason, they like seeing the Communists gobble up millions of people a year in Red-led wars of "liberation." Judging by the Berlin War and other such Iron Curtain devices, Communism liberates people exactly like lions liberate lambs.

The UN's true feelings are shown by its Security Council, which recently urged all-out military action against tiny Rhodesia, while refusing to do anything about North Vietnamese aggression. I'll leave it to you which poses the greater threat to world peace.

Is there a way out for the USA? Yes, there is. Give Red China a seat in the UN — our seat. Then smash the Viet Cong with everything we've got.

The best time to stop a fire is while it is small. Everyone says Red China is the real threat. Why wait until they develop the means to deliver their bomb? Why do we always fight on enemy terms? What does such action prove, except that we value enemy lives more than our own GI's?

Morris H. Banner

memory lingers on.

In addition there are hundreds of conservative-minded Republicans in this area who don't quite cotton to Percy and it will take a great deal of personal contact before he is able to win their support.

While few of these rock-ribbed Republicans would commit the heresy of voting Democratic, their absence from the polls on Election Day will cut into Percy's already slim chance of scoring an upset.

In the first hours after the recent primary disappointed backers of some of the unsuccessful candidates were ready to tear up their membership cards in the Republican Party.

The shock has worn off now and Democratic candidates for county office won't be able to count on too much support from disappointed or dissident Republicans.

Perhaps some backers of losers will take out their resentment by voting for Jack Ewing for Sheriff or Pat Ryan for County Treasurer, but there won't be enough of them to affect the outcome of the election.

Most Republicans will swallow their chagrin and follow the straight ticket this time, but each election seems to weaken the loyalty of those Republican voters who base their party allegiance on a county job or being with the majority in their own community.

It's nice to see that politics has been eliminated from the selection of candidates for judicial posts.

It's reassuring to know that judicial candidates will be picked strictly on the basis of qualifications and that the judicial conventions to be conducted by the two parties will concern themselves only with picking the best qualified men for the two judgeships.

It's nice to dream.

ATTENTION, ROCK HOUNDS: A state park has finally been dedicated where rock hounds are invited to take home samples.

Collecting rocks has become such a popular hobby that most parks are forced to discourage the practice. Rock Hound State Park is near Deming, New Mexico. Specimens of agate, and quartz crystals called geodes are available.

Rock hunting is as good an excuse as fishing for spending a good deal of aimless, pleasant time outdoors. Rocks are fascinating if you take the time to look at them, even if you have absolutely no knowledge of their basic makeup. If you start picking up a few samples, particularly on vacation trips, your curiosity will probably eventually drive you to learn a little about the hundreds of varieties.

Hunting rocks is a little like panning for gold — you never know when you might stumble on some tremendous find. Maybe never, but you will have a lot of fun in the meantime.

Sales of U.S. Savings Bonds Up

Lake county residents purchased a total of $393,802 in series E & H United States savings bonds in May, according to Philip L. Speidel, Lake Forest, general county chairman of the savings bonds committee.

Sales in the state of Illinois were $29,892,932, according to Arnold J. Rauen, state director of the Treasury's savings bonds division. This is an increase of 16.4% over sales for last May, and accounts for 7.2% of national sales which were $413,000,000. Illinois purchases in the first five months of this year reached 44.7% of the annual quota which is $348,000,000.

Your Congressman Reports...

By Cong. Robert McClure

The U. S. Supreme Court has thrown up a new roadblock in the drive against crime. The latest decision prevents a police officer from questioning the person arrested as a criminal suspect unless the officer first explains to the prisoner he is not required to answer any questions which might be self-incriminating. In addition, the prisoner must be told that he is entitled to the services of a lawyer, before he may be required to answer questions. In this recent 5-4 decision, the four dissenting judges declared that the decision "would measurably weaken the criminal law."

The Supreme Court decision is particularly alarming because of the prevalence of organized crime in most of our large cities and because of the disorders and riots which have occurred in Los Angeles, Chicago and Pensacola in recent weeks.

The majority of the Court speaking through Chief Justice Warren contend that sustained private questioning of a suspect is the equivalent of a third degree threat of bodily injury. Basing their ruling on the Constitutional prohibition against self-incrimination, the majority of the Court declared that this privilege is available to rich and poor alike. The majority held that a court appointed lawyer must be made available where a defendant claims that he is not able to afford private counsel.

Although this decision will make criminals more defiant, there is bound to be a continuing public pressure in Congress to provide new techniques for the prosecution of crime. The rising crime rate continues to make this subject of special concern to the Judiciary Committee of the U. S. House of Representatives and Senate. As a member of the House Judiciary Committee, the writer is aware of the difficulties involved in criminal prosecution. It is probable that most crimes are never exposed either because the offender is not apprehended or the victim fails to report the crime or refuses to appear as a witness in the case.

Of course, the recent Supreme Court decision applies only to those cases which are reported and where witnesses are willing to appear for the prosecution. With this latest ruling, it is quite likely that many additional criminals will be able to avoid prosecution. Meanwhile, society demands that every lawful effort should be utilized to prosecute and secure convictions.

Justice Tom Clark, in dissenting, said the decision went "too far."

In the principal dissenting opinion, Justices White, arlan and Stewart concluded:

Seasonal Drop In Public Aid Rolls

The Illinois Department of Public Aid reports a total caseload of 403,187 in April, compared to 409,099 recipients in March. Harold O. Swank, director of the department, said sharp seasonal declines in General Assistance units receiving state funds and in the unemployed parent sector of Aid to Dependent Children were largely responsible for this decrease.

Public Aid total expenditures in April were $25,466,026, compared to $26,300,797 in March.

The number of persons in the Aid to Dependent Children program declined by 1,941. The Old Age Assistance rolls increased by 383 persons. Disability Assistance increased by 213 persons; recipients of Blind Assistance decreased by 22 persons.

In Lake County, the total number of recipients in all programs were 2,730, receiving $182,555.

Remember that other driver in traffic has the same problems that you do! Courtesy consideration for your fellow motorist will give you a neighborly feeling and help you both to avoid a traffic smashup. Courtesy will save lives.

"The most basic function of any government is to provide for the security of the individual and of his property. These ends of society are served by the criminal laws which for the most part are aimed at the prevention of crime.

"Without the reasonably effective performance of the task of preventing private violence and retaliation, it is idle to talk about human dignity and civilized values."

The Congress soon may have something to say on this subject.

Clan Gathers At Loon Lake Cottage For Reunion

The Baum home on the north shore of Loon Lake has been a favorite summer gathering place of the "clan" for 25 years. Last week, four generations of the Baum family were enjoying the summer weather in its shelter.

The Loon Lake home has been the summer home of Mrs. Eva Baum and her husband Wendell (now deceased) for 25 years. Mrs. Baum lives at 2336 N. Springfield, in Chicago. The Baums' four daughters grew up spending the summers at the lake.

Mrs. Baum was the eldest of the four generations: her daughter Mrs. Theresa Stapleton of 4338 N. Ridgeway, Chicago; Mrs. Stapleton's daughter, Mrs. Patricia Mukherjee of New York, and the two Mukherjee daughters, two-year-old Joia and Maia, six months old July 1.

Mrs. Baum came from Hungary when she was 18 years old. Her husband was a wheelwright and pursued the trade of carpentry in this country.

Her daughter, Mrs. Stapleton, is a teacher at the House of the Good Shepherd in Chicago. It's a high school for disturbed girls. The work is often tiring, Mrs. Stapleton says, but rewarding.

Her daughter, Mrs. Mukherjee, was a teacher, too, until her marriage. She met her husband, Dr. Kali Mukherjee, when they were both studying at the University of Illinois. He was a student from India and remained in this country, now teaching at the University of New York. Mrs. Mukherjee has a master's degree in English literature, but stays home to care for their two daughters.

Mr. Mukherjee was the only male present last week. Only girls have been born to the Baum family and their descendants for five generations. "Maybe next time," says Patricia Mukherjee.

Patricia and her mother reminisced about life at Loon Lake when she was small. "There were maybe one-third as many cottages as now," Patricia said. "You could hear the loons calling all around the lake. Now you rarely hear one. Soon it will be a Loon Lake without loons."

Patricia nearly drowned in Loon Lake when she was six years old. She couldn't swim, but jumped off a diving board into deep water. A neighbor boy rescued her.

Mrs. Baum has seven great-granddaughters, one 17 years old. No great-grandsons, of course. Most of the family had been at the cottage last Thursday for a get-together. Like so many of the summer homes that ring the lakes, it's a favorite refuge for summer vacations for succeeding generations, and a place to meet the latest additions to growing families. Like tawny little international Joia and Maia.

SAFEGUARD YOUR HEALTH

A PUBLIC SERVICE OF THE
ILLINOIS STATE MEDICAL SOCIETY

STINGING INSECTS CAN KILL

Honeybees, wasps, hornets and yellow jackets can be as deadly as poisonous snakes. In fact, they kill more Americans each year than snake bites.

Fortunately not everyone is susceptible to such a deadly reaction—only those who are allergic to insect venom.

How does one know if he is allergic? He'll probably get warning signs the first time he's stung. He may become nauseous, break out with hives, suffer an asthma attack, or even lapse into shock—besides experiencing the normal reaction of pain, swelling and redness at the site of the sting.

If you have a known allergy to stinging insects, take steps to protect yourself.

First of all, make sure you carry a special bee sting kit. Available through any physician, the kit contains drugs to counteract severe reactions in the event of a sting. In addition, there are hypodermic treatments which may prevent severe reactions from recurring.

If you should be stung by a honeybee in particular, some of the harmful effects can be prevented if the stinger is removed instantly. This can be done with one swift scrape of the finger nail. But remember—never pick up the bee between the thumb and forefinger. You'll only squeeze it more venom.

Whether you're allergic or not, the pain caused by stinging insects is no joke. To relieve pain from the sting of a honeybee, hornet or yellow jacket, apply household ammonia, baking soda or even ice water. Vinegar is particularly soothing for wasp stings. Whatever you do, don't follow the old wives' tale about mud packs. It could result in serious infection.

Of course, it's best not to get stung at all.

To avoid being stung:

•Wear light colored clothing such as whites, tans or greens. Flowery prints, blacks and bright colors antagonize bees and invite attack.

•Avoid wearing sweet-smelling cosmetics such as perfumes, hair sprays, hair tonics and suntan lotion—all of which attract stinging insects.

•Keep garbage areas clean and spray them with insecticides regularly to keep insects away.

•Check your yard for possible hives. Should you discover one, don't try to remove it yourself. Leave the job for professional exterminators, beekeepers or even the fire department.

•Where are most hives found?

WASPS' open comb nests may be found under eaves, in carports, behind shutters—in almost any protected place.

HORNETS' gray pyroform or football shaped hives hang on tree branches.

YELLOW JACKETS live in the ground and emerge through small holes, especially near dead logs.

HONEYBEES nestle in hollows of trees or on twigs.

Proof Of The Pudding Is Brownie Dessert

Proof of the pudding is in the eating; and Brownie Dessert lives up proudly to the old saying. Prepare this elegant but simple dessert quickly with the aid of semi-sweet chocolate morsels and condensed milk. It's so easy to make—and bake into a pulpy chocolate dessert. For a final touch of luscious simplicity, crown each warm serving with a scoop of ice cream.

Brownie Pudding

1 6-ounce package (1 cup) semi-sweet chocolate morsels
2 eggs
½ cup sweetened condensed milk
1 teaspoon vanilla
1 tablespoon flour
1 teaspoon baking powder
¼ teaspoon salt

Melt semi-sweet chocolate morsels over hot (not boiling) water. Let cool 5 minutes. Beat together eggs, condensed milk and vanilla. Combine flour, baking powder and salt; stir into egg mixture. Add melted semi-sweet chocolate morsels; mix well. Turn into a buttered 9-inch pie plate. Bake in a 325°F. oven 30 to 35 minutes. Serve warm or cool with whipped cream or ice cream. YIELD: 6 servings.

The joy of the Lord is your strength. —(Neh 8:10)

As we approach our senior years, we should continue to enjoy the breath in us that God has given, and to live happily and joyously. We too are children of God, and when our minds are filled with the thought of happy life is for living then we refuse to give way to negative opinions or appearances. Through prayer we keep in tune with the healing power of God.

"The Many Worlds of Optometry" is the theme of the annual national meeting of optometrists which is receiving added international interest with a large number of optometrists and visitors from foreign countries in attendance.

Keynote speaker at the opening ceremonies of the Congress was Edwin D. Canham, editor-in-chief of The Christian Science Monitor.

Another highlight of the four-day event comprised the annual Awards Luncheon at which four individuals received optometry's Apollo awards in recognition of their contribution to the visual welfare of the American people.

The "forgotten" child is one who, having survived the critical pre-school years in safety, finds himself denied the privilege of what we consider a normal childhood. UNICEF reports. Instead of living with his family, he may be hiding out with gangs, "hustling" a living or settling up housekeeping of sorts with friends of his own age—making plans for no future except the next meal or a place to lay his head for the night.

AA To Have Directory

A handy directory locating the Lake County groups which offer the help to Alcoholics Anonymous to problem drinkers is about to go to press. And a Speaker's Bureau has been formed to help tell the story of AA methods of sobriety.

These are the work of the AA Central Information Committee of Lake County, formed by a conference last spring. The committee represents AA groups in all sections of the county.

The pocket-sized directory is expected to be available, free to the public, by the end of July. For the first time it will be easy to direct problem drinkers seeking AA help to any one of more than 25 groups. Because the AA groups of sober alcoholics are informally organized, it is sometimes difficult to find a suitable unit.

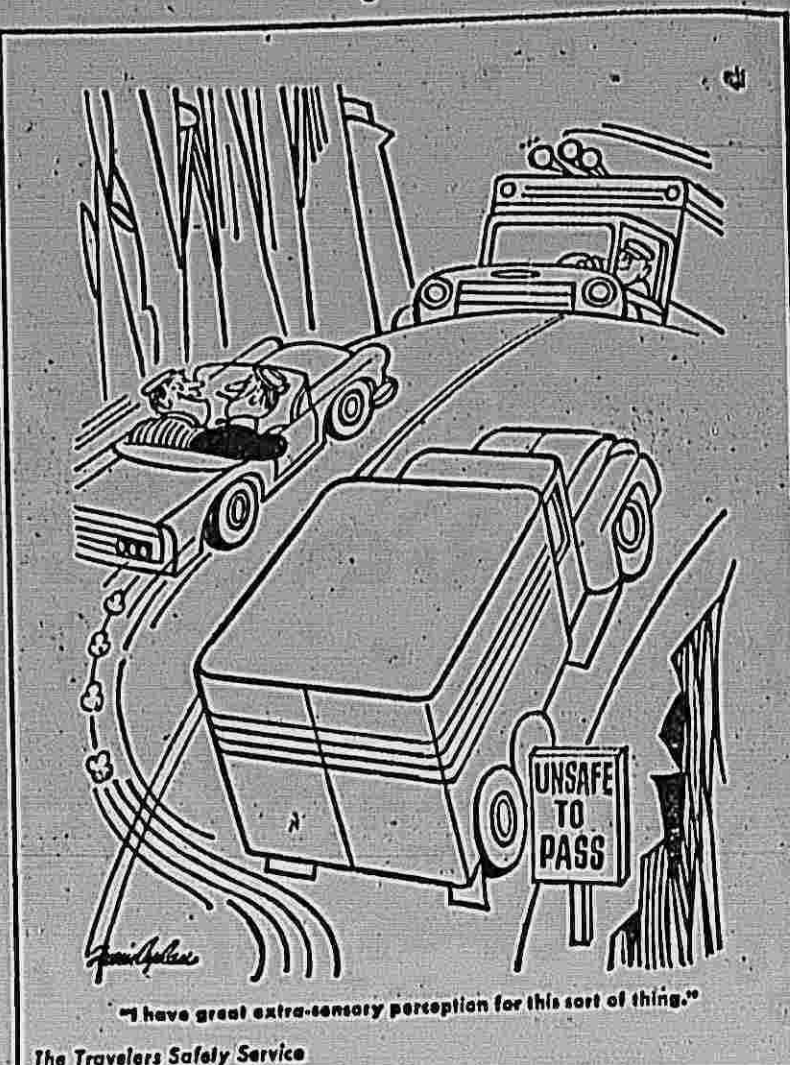

The new Speaker's Bureau consists of qualified men and women members of AA, ready to explain their methods of "happy sobriety" to any group. Speakers and the new directories may be secured by writing AA Central, Box 98, Zion, or by phoning 872-2311.

These days a man needs at least five dollars to buy his way out of even a dime store.

Survivors are his wife, Minnie, one son Charles Edwards, Rosecrans; 3 daughters, Mrs. Robert (Maude) Gillings, Russell, Mrs. Winfred (Ida) Howard, Gurnee, Mrs. Donald (Ione) Crawford, Waukegan; one brother, Chauncey Edwards, Kenosha; two sisters, Mrs. John (Maude) Crawford, Racine, Wis.; Mrs. Dan (Nina) Culler, Milwaukee; 8 grandchildren and 6 great-grandchildren.

Funeral services were held at 1:30 p.m. Saturday at the Strang Funeral Home in Antioch. Rev. L. H. Messersmith of the Millburn Congregational Church officiated at the services. Interment was in Mount Rest Cemetery in Newport Township.

Tigers Have First Loss of Season

The Sox and Giants went into extra innings Tuesday, with the Sox coming out on top. Going into the bottom of the sixth the Sox were losing 5-3, but with the help of 4 walks, 1 error, and 2 singles they tied the score. Then in the top of the 7th the Giants came up with a run to take the lead, but once again the Sox came up with 2 runs to put it away.

Sox 0-2-0-1-0-2-2-7 7 2

The Tigers lost their first game of the season Thursday as Gary Racine and the Yankees shut them out 5-0. Racine gave up only 3 hits while his team-mates didn't commit an error.

Ansell Wins Feature At Speed Center

Bill Ansell of Milwaukee withstood the pressure drive of Duane Harris of Lake Villa in the 30 lap feature race Saturday night to score his first feature win on this new asphalt oval. Ansell started in 7th spot and moved into the lead on the 16th spot, taking it away from Claude Patter of Genoa City.

Potter had taken the lead from Larry Leach on the 9th lap after working his way by Mike Curcio and George Fisher.

The semi feature race was won by Lawrence of Kenosha who led throughout. Tom Anderson of Antioch driving the Yellow Jacket Modified, lost a wheel on the second lap and spun into the infield. The tire bounced crazily but caused the damage. Second in the semi was Ray Dobbs followed by Rodger Isles and Ken Monroe.

Heats were won by Bill Ansell, Jim Sullivan, Luran Lawrence, and Bill Bohn. Jr. Dodd set fast time averaging 51.37 mph.

Sportsman events were both captured by Lynn Bulard of Rockford. Seconds were taken by Floyd Mannien and Robert Weldman.

Twenty-seven modifieds competed in the evening's racing.

Rifles Start Practice

Football season is here, at least for the Lake County Rifle rookies. The Rifles begin rookie tryouts on Tuesday, July 5th, 6:45 p.m. at Mundelein High School. The Rifle coaches are expecting a turnout of some 30 new candidates seeking berths on the local semi-professional football club.

Head Coach Gene "Chick" Cichowski will put his new charges through prepared drills that act as indicators to determine a player's basic ability to compete as a candidate for the team. Those players remaining in camp after the tryouts will report back the following week with Rifle regulars who will be arriving for their first taste of the new grid season.

Based on last year's first-year performance and the number of returning veterans, optimism will be running high among players and coaches alike. Coach Cichowski has promised an all out effort to bring the Central States League championship to Lake County in 1966.

Any interested players who have not yet contacted the ball club but would still like to try out for the team are asked to bring their sweats and football shoes and report to Mundelein high school field on Tuesday evening, July 5th. The school is located at Hawley Street and Rte. 63 just west of Mundelein.

The only requirements are that the individual be 8 through 19 years old and be able to swim in deep water. The swimmers in the club this year show improvement over last year's club. Some old members are back, and some new talent has joined the club.

The members practice as a group from 9 a.m. to 10 a.m. Monday through Friday and 8 p.m. to 10 p.m. Tuesday and Thursday nights at the Aqua Center.

Teaching a new farming and canning methods to small groups of farm boys and girls back around 1906 was the forerunner of the 4-H Club program supervised by the Cooperative Extension Service.

Burgan Winner of June Championship

Defending champion Dennis Burgan outlasted the field to win the 35-lap June Championship for late model stock cars at the Waukegan Speedway Saturday night. Butch's Auto Parts soundly defeated Chuck and Sons Disposal Service in the head-on demolition and Floyd Vetroni eventually won the regular demolition.

The Butch's Auto Parts team made quick work of the competition in the team demolition, but when the regular demo got under way, it was Floyd Vetroni that emerged winner. Two big jalopy events are scheduled for next weekend. A jalopy mud race will be on tap Saturday night and then there will be a full-sized demolition on Monday night, July 4.

Defending champions and present point leaders, John Reimer in the modifieds and Dennis Burgan in the late models, came through with feature wins Sunday night at the Waukegan Speedway. A series of feature accidents dimmed the hopes of many of the drivers and both drivers were bumped around a little in their wins.

Bob Anzinger jumped into the modified feature lead for six laps while the rest of the field jockeyed for position. A five car pileup stopped the race in the seventh. The top five for the restart were Anzinger, Milt Curcio, Roger Otto, Junior Dodd, and Reimer. Reimer raced high on the clay oval and grabbed the lead in the eleventh circuit. Dodd came home with second place money and Jim Oullette took third place honors.

John Dietz kept his late model Ford Futura in the lead for several feature laps, but then spun out. A multi-car crash shortly thereafter put Dietz back into the lead. In the seventh lap as Odell Jones and Burgan duelled for second, Dietz blew a tire and Jones and Burgan were suddenly battling for the lead. Jones spun out shortly and Jim Cossman came on to take second ahead of Norm Zenko.

In the eleventh lap of the semi-feature, leader Jim Sullivan spun around and Fran Ansell and John Garner, who were in hot pursuit, piled into Sullivan. The race had to be stopped as Sullivan's car burned briefly. Garner recovered and took the checkered at the end of 15 laps.

The Fourth of July weekend at the Waukegan Speedway will see three nights of auto racing. The late models will run all three nights; Saturday, Sunday and Monday, while the jalopies crash around on Saturday and Monday nights. The modifieds race on both Sunday night (Firecracker 50 championship race) and on Monday night.

Crowds Will Stream From City For July 4th Weekend

The Chicago Motor Club's touring department estimates that more than 1,350,000 people will leave the Chicago metropolitan area in some 375,000 cars during the three-day July 4th holiday period, with the exodus beginning after 4 p.m. Friday, July 1.

The average auto vacation trip over the weekend will be to destinations within a 350-mile radius of the metropolitan area, the motor club said.

George Sims, director of the club's touring department, said that an additional 325,000 vehicles will be moving within the Chicago area on each day of the holiday period. Traffic estimates are based on good weather conditions prevailing.

The traffic load is expected to reach its peak between 4 p.m. and 9:30 p.m. on Monday, July 4, when the bulk of the 375,000 holiday motorists are expected to be homeward bound. After 9:30 p.m. the return volume is expected to taper off.

More than 30% of the drivers involved in fatal accidents in 1965 were under 25 years of age.

Sports Advantages Outweigh Dangers

Although there is some risk that children between the ages of nine and 14 who compete in sports may injure their growing bones in ways that may hamper growth or result in deformity — the dangers have been exaggerated. This comforting news comes from Dr. Robert L. Larson and Robert O. McMahon of the Sacred Heart Hospital.

In reviewing 1,338 athletic injuries in the Eugene area, the physicians found that one out of five of those injured were 14 or under. However, growth disturbances resulting from these injuries were the exception rather than the rule, they found. But activities such as the base-runner's slide in baseball, pitching curve balls, and too many innings of pitching do seem hazardous. Youngsters who are obese, or are unusually tall, lanky, and uncoordinated, with poor muscle development, seem especially prone to injuries that might hamper growth or result in deformity. They should postpone sports activity, the doctors recommend, unless such activities are well supervised.

BELLS on Independence Day!

This year there will be many four-year-old Americans ringing bells on July Fourth, who will grow up believing that this was always the custom. Actually it was, from the first Independence Day till about a century ago when the sounds of peace were drowned out by the noise of war, and the day became celebrated only with firecrackers and rockets.

Writing a book called The Seasons of America Past a few years ago, the author unearthed the story about Independence Day bell-ringing, and he mentioned that "it seems with firecrackers disappearing we might well revive that early American custom." The idea quickly took hold and, supported by organizations and churches and newspapers, it reached millions of people. In 1963 it was passed in Washington as Senate Concurrent Resolution 25, requesting that all American bells, public and private, church, school, fire, college and town bells ring simultaneously at 2 p.m. Eastern Daylight Time on July Fourth. Some places now ring bells for two minutes, others for four minutes, along with many radio, TV programs, and even public loudspeakers in parks, race-tracks, ball games and on ships at sea.

For the past three years the "Bells on Independence Day" project has been included in Governors' Fourth of July Proclamations, and this holiday which was losing much of its solemn significance, was rekindled into a day of bells ringing out America's birthday, just as it was in the beginning. It has been said that a thing must be done four times before it becomes a habit, so this fourth year, for the revival of the early American custom of ringing bells on Independence Day, is a most important one. Perhaps there will be no great bells within reach of your hearing, perhaps you will seem to be the only one ringing a small handbell; but you will know that all over the nation in every state, millions of bells will be ringing out the message of democracy and liberty.

A safer and less noisy pastime for children, let them ring bells on this day, proclaiming America's Birthday. And wherever we are, let us remember this greatest of American days with joy and reverence.

Show-Off Salad

Watch for Thompson seedless grapes in your market, and make the prettiest summer salad ever.

GRAPE RING

- 1 tbsp. gelatin
- 1/4 cup cold water
- 1 cup boiling water
- 1/2 cup lemon juice
- 1 tsp. vinegar
- 1/2 cup sugar
- 1/2 tsp. salt
- 2-3 drops Iodex & Ferrins Worcestershire
- 8 cups Thompson seedless grapes
- 1 cup finely minced celery

Soften gelatin in cold water 5 min. Dissolve in boiling water. Add lemon juice, vinegar, sugar, salt and Worcestershire. Chill. When a mixture is slightly thickened, fold in grapes and celery. Turn into 8-oz. ring mold that has been rinsed with cold water. Chill until firm. Unmold on crisp lettuce and fill center with fruit salad. (Serves 8)

In agreement with UNICEF's efforts to combat malnutrition with vegetable proteins, Dr. Jerome Harrington of the Rockefeller Foundation indicates that "A ten-ounce beefsteak requires 17 pounds of corn, four pounds of hay and two pounds of protein supplement to produce. Obviously, it would be more efficient to provide vegetable products directly to the populace."

Camp Wonderland Hosts Needy For Summer Vacation

All the delights of a care-free vacation in the country await the 225 needy youngsters and their mothers from the city who are the first guests of the summer at The Salvation Army's Camp Wonderland June 27-July 6. The camp is located six miles northwest of Antioch on County Hwy. 5A.

Camp Wonderland will be host to an additional 450 children and their mothers—225 at a time—for nine-day periods through July 27. Following the family camping sessions, two periods will be held for men and women 60 years of age and older. One group of 175 will vacation July 29-Aug. 6, followed by a similar group Aug. 8-16. This summer marks the fifteenth season that The Salvation Army has held camping sessions for the older.

In a special wooded area of Camp Wonderland known as Camp Shagbark, 200 girl guards from the Army's Northern Illinois Division will camp June 27-July 4. Approximately 200 young musicians—boys and girls—will follow them July 4-10 for a divisional music camp. A weekend camp was held for 300 Sunbeams June 24-26.

Throughout the summer, nearly 100 other boy scout troops from the Chicago area also will enjoy Shagbark's facilities.

The present 70-acre rolling woodland location, acquired in 1924, is at the edge of Camp Lake, Wis. Eighty-seven buildings—cottages, recreation buildings, dining halls and other facilities—are scattered over the camp area. Beneath towering trees, formal flower gardens provide a colorful contrast to the large well-kept lawns.

Guests at Camp Wonder-

Slightly less than 45 per cent of the total 4-H membership reside on farms. Of the remainder, 33 per cent live in rural areas and the balance in towns and cities with over 2,500 population.

Captain and Mrs. Gordon Sharp, 2755 W. Carmen ave., are the directors of Camp Wonderland this summer.

Chilled Chocolate Soufflé

For chocolate lovers, here's a majestic, eye-catching Chocolate Soufflé that's deliciously sweet and rich-tasting, and at the same time low in calories. A do-ahead dessert, this airy, delectable chilled soufflé is made early, served cold and glamorous hours later.

In keeping with the modern trend toward calorie-saving cookery, this diet-minded recipe has been calorie-streamlined to but a fraction of its usual calorie count. Calorie cutting is made easy through the use of the old calorie-free sweetener, Sucaryl, which replaces all of the sugar normally required in the recipe. Sweet result... more than 100 calories have been slashed from every serving.

Chocolate Marble Soufflé (Low-Calorie)

3 envelopes (or tablespoons) unflavored gelatin
1/2 cup cold water
8 eggs, separated
7 1/2 teaspoons Sucaryl solution

2 cups skim milk
1 teaspoon vanilla
1/2 cup cocoa
1/2 cup nonfat dry milk
1/2 cup ice water

Fasten a 6-inch band of aluminum foil around a 1 1/2 quart soufflé dish, allowing 4 inches to stand above top of dish. Soften gelatin in cold water. Combine egg yolks, Sucaryl, skim milk, and vanilla in top of a double boiler; blend well. Cook over hot water, stirring occasionally, until thick. Remove from heat; add softened gelatin, stirring to dissolve. Chill until mixture begins to thicken. Divide mixture in 2 bowls. Blend cocoa into mixture in one bowl. Beat egg whites stiff; fold half into each mixture. Combine dry milk and ice water; beat on high speed of mixer until stiff, about 10 minutes. Gently fold half into each mixture. Alternately spoon vanilla and chocolate mixtures into prepared soufflé dish to create a marbled effect. Chill several hours until set. Makes 10 servings. Each serving contains 127 calories; 11.5 grams protein; 6 grams fat; 8.5 grams carbohydrate. If made with sugar, each serving would contain 235 calories.

Church Careers Rewarding Despite Apathy, Pastors Say

Ministers have their share of disappointments and frustrations but they find that the response of even a few persons and evidence of just a little accomplishment are well worth their efforts and sacrifices.

So say two pastors well-known in Northern Illinois in reply to a man who quit the ministry to become a sales executive.

"The local parish has needs, challenges, and opportunities offered by no other profession," the Rev. Roger Baumeister writes in the July issue of Together Magazine.

Mr. Baumeister and his wife gave up an $18,000 annual income to serve a Methodist Church in Tampico, Illinois, a town of only 800 people.

His article "Why I Stay in the Ministry," is one replying to a sales executive, J. Robert Ewbank, who several months ago told why he quit the ministry.

Dr. Harold A. Bosley, pastor of Christ Church, Methodist, in New York City, formerly of First Church, Evanston, reports the ministry is rewarding because "the Christian faith has something of fundamental importance to say on all human problems, personal and social alike."

Mr. and Mrs. Baumeister admit that there have been times when they—like Mr. Ewbank—found the church "incapable of understanding the present times," and that they have seen apathy, have had to forego some pleasures and pinch pennies.

But apathy is "everywhere," Mr. Baumeister, a former college professor, points out, adding, "so—are the slowly growing signs of renewal."

He has been cheered time and again by the response of individuals to the Christian message and by the loyal efforts of volunteers in church work.

Dr. Bosley also often feels discouraged and has doubts, he admits.

He writes that if he merely preached what many laymen want to hear, he would not be worthy of the ministry.

"I am called to preach the Gospel of the love and will of God as we find it in Christ," he states in "Together." "When it consoles, let it console; when it nourishes, let it nourish; when it rebukes, let it rebuke; and when it damns, let it damn."

"I have felt repeatedly," Dr. Bosley goes on, "that they (laymen) expect the wrong things—not that they expect too much of a minister."

"The church's witness includes far more than what is said in the pulpit or done by the minister," he adds. "We witness as a church by the spirit of our fellowship and worship by the life and work of our organizations."

Dr. Bosley not only responded to a "call to preach," but he believes that "what the church stands for in her moments of greatness can and must win—or all is lost in the human enterprise."

Discussing problems faced by pastors, Mr. Baumeister finds crude people in cities as well as in small towns. He writes:

"Culture can be interpreted in many ways. Some of the most crude persons we

The Law Serves You

A Public Service of the ILLINOIS STATE BAR ASSOCIATION

LIABILITY FOR CHILDREN

If your ten year old son throws a rock through the neighbor's huge picture window, are you responsible for the damage?

Every parent has pondered this or similar problems of liability for the acts of their children. In general, under Illinois law, you are not legally responsible for injuries or damages caused by children because you do not direct or control their actions.

This does not mean that your children are free to inflict themselves upon every window in the neighborhood. If you know that your son is throwing rocks at windows and take no action to stop him, you may be liable for the injuries he causes.

Similarly, if a parent gives a child a dangerous instrument, such as a rifle, knowing that the child is inexperienced with firearms, he may be liable for any injuries that result from this act of poor judgment.

In contrast, if a father allows his 14 year old son to use his rifle, knowing that the son has for several years known live in metropolitan areas, and some of the most charming are right here in our little town."

He manages to keep up on current drama and music better than many of his suburban friends through "reading plays and reviews."

"We are convinced that the church needs criticism, discipline, and study by those willing to see her faults," Mr. Baumeister states. "But we are convinced, too, that only those who criticize become involved can anything happen."

observed the rules of firearm safety, he probably would not be held liable for a gunshot injury accidentally inflicted on another hunter by his son.

Family Business

Suppose a father sends his son to the hardware store to buy a new lock and permits the boy to use the family automobile. Is the father responsible from his son's negligence?

The answer, according to Illinois law, may be "yes." In sending the son on an errand the father has engaged his child in family "business"—the son is acting at the direction of his father, as his agent.

Dating

The same father gives his son permission to use the family car on a date. Although the son is known to be a careful driver, he causes an accident and the other driver is injured. Is the father liable to the injured person?

Under these circumstances, the father probably would not be held responsible for the negligence of his son. The son was acting entirely on his own behalf, rather than at the direction of or under the control of his father. And, a date is not family "business"—not yet at least, under Illinois law.

A Puzzle For The Postman

Luxion, Ellixion, Alligson—after 100 years the staff of Alexian Brothers Hospital, 1200 West Belden, Chicago, has grown somewhat accustomed to strangely addressed letters, but there are always new surprises.

When Brother Bonaventure, the first of the Alexian order came to America in 186 to open the hospital, he could not have been expected to envision the complex problem of communicating with people all over the world.

A letter to the hospital recently arrived from Florida. The address was Lexon Brothers Hospital, 12th and Racine. The writer evidently realized something was wrong, crossed this out and inserted: Lexian Brothers Hospital, 1200 Belding St.

Less startling was a recent letter from Indiana addressed to Alexian Hospital, but shortly before the medical records department had received a letter from North Carolina addressed: Alexion Brothers Hospital, Beldone and Racine Ave.

Or what about the one from West Virginia simply addressed: Ellixion Brothers Hospital, Chicago, Illinois. Surprisingly enough, it was delivered.

Finally, an insurance company in Philadelphia came close with Olexion Brothers Hospital.

With guesses at zone numbers ranging from 14 to 36, the hospital has accumulated quite a collection of misaddressed letters and who knows what the next 100 years will bring in the mail.

NOW

WHEN HELD TO MATURITY

Hats off to the many presidents and managers of companies who helped build the Payroll Savings Plan into what it is today—one of the most popular and easy ways to save money.

These business leaders provided the facilities and manpower necessary to operate the Plan—plus their own enthusiastic endorsement. And never stopped to count hours or pennies.

Thanks to them, over 8 million Americans—their employees—are building security and helping their country through this automatic savings plan.

There are others who have helped other millions of Americans own a share of their country. Volunteers in every walk of life. Folks in radio and TV, movies and the theater. Newspaper and magazine and billboard folks. And Bond "salesmen" in thousands of banks and savings institutions.

Buy Bonds at your bank, or on the Payroll Savings Plan where you work, and you'll see what a good idea it is.

And the next time you see your boss (who helped make it so easy for you to save)—thank him.

He deserves it—from all 190 million of us.

NOW—SAVINGS BONDS PAY 4.15%!

Interest on new E and H Bonds you purchase has been raised to 4.15% when held to maturity. E Bonds mature faster—now in just 7 years. Your old Bonds will earn more, too. Savings Bonds are better to buy, and hold, than ever.

Accidents Lead As Child Killer

Although rapid advances in medicine in the past 25 years have reduced sharply the death rate of children aged one to 14, the time for

KINDS OF THERMOMETERS

Did you know there's a roast meat thermometer as well as one especially designed to indicate cooking temperature when grilling meats?

Roast meat thermometers, which indicate the internal temperature or doneness of meat, are better known, of course, than those for grilling.

Many are purchasing thermometers for their grills to make sure certain foods are not cooked at too high a temperature.

TWO DAY STORAGE

Ground fresh meats as well as variety meats such as liver, heart and brains should not be kept stored, unless frozen, for more than two days after purchasing.

Refrigerate these meats as soon as they're brought home from the market, loosely covered.

Brains and sweetbreads which are more fragile variety meats than the others are best when they're precooked in water, salt and an acid such as lemon juice or vinegar so they will remain light colored. Cover closely after cooking.

DEDUCTIBLE

A clergyman received a phone call from the local income tax man inquiring about a $600 contribution listed as having been paid his church by a certain member. "Did he make this donation?" the tax man asked. "The clergyman hesitated for a brief moment, then replied: "He will, he will."

complacency has not yet arrived. For accidents rather than disease are now taking an increasing proportion of children's lives. This sobering news comes from the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company, which calculates that in 1962-1963 accidents were responsible for about one-third of all deaths among boys aged one to four and for nearly half the total at the school ages. Among girls almost one out of every three deaths in the age range one to 14 years resulted from injuries.

Motor vehicles are the major cause of accidental death among preschool and school age children, followed by fires and drowning.

With school doors closed or closing throughout the country, motorists should be on the alert for darting youngsters. Parents should be strict and set unbreakable rules about ball playing in the street. They might also arrange for swimming lessons offered free-of-charge by many community agencies across the land.
